

SPIR 8th International Meeting
October 22 - 23, 2020
Virtually Everywhere

EXHIBITOR PROSPECTUS

Following the unprecedented success of our Society's 2019 meeting in Amsterdam, where we hosted the largest gathering thus far of pediatric IRs from around the world, we are excited to be offering another in-depth scientific congress this year.

Due to the continued uncertainty of the COVID19 pandemic, the SPIR Board of Directors has made the unprecedented decision to switch this year's 8th International Annual meeting to a virtual format. This meeting will be held on October 22-23, 2020 and will include scientific papers, challenging cases and M&M sessions. The program will also include 'How I Do It' sessions, providing an opportunity for experienced paediatric IRs to talk about their favourite tips, techniques and kit, as well as offering plenty of opportunity for Q&A and shared learning.

We are excited by this new endeavor for our Society. It is a unique opportunity for us to reach out to those who would not normally be able to attend our meeting. For the first time, we are offering industry the opportunity to be directly involved in our program, delivering industry content or clinically-centred talks directly to delegates during the breaks. Technical innovation and device development are key to the future of our specialty. We are passionate about working with our industry partners to drive debate, ideas and inventive solutions to the challenges of delivering minimally-invasive care for the smallest in our society.

A major part of our prior success has been outstanding corporate support for our educational programs. We hope you can join us online this year so that we can shape the future of pediatric IR together.

SPIR President

About the SPIR

The Society for Pediatric Interventional Radiology is an international organisation dedicated to excellence in Pediatric Interventional Radiology. The Society unites experts from centres across the world and gives them a forum to discuss, debate and develop this specialty together. Our annual congress provides a platform for teams to share their expertise and learn how to apply the latest IR techniques in children. SPIR supports research initiatives in a number of regions, recognizing that in order to innovate and improve, we need to collaborate and learn from each other. SPIR has members from over 20 nations and actively seeks to support those who may be delivering PIR in relative isolation. We work with training schemes to attract emerging talent to our specialty and encourage Members-in-Training participation via our meetings and education programs.

SPIR works with other organizations such as SIR, SPR, ESPR, CIRSE, SIDI, ASPVIR and the Chinese SPIR to raise the profile and influence of pediatric IR. We also reach out to nations where PIR is not yet a reality, so that in time, every child in the world has access to minimally invasive, life-changing treatment.
